

Southern Roots Rockers Vol. I

LocoBop L2I-035

DON NIX

ADDICTED TO YOU

HUNGRY

Iconic Memphis music man, Don Nix has written, produced, and performed with George Harrison, Albert King, John Mayall, Freddy King, John Lee Hooker, and Leon Russell.

TERRY WALL

SLEEP WALKIN'

HANG ON

Sometimes compared to Delbert McClinton, but more often Terry Wall is simply incomparable – as a guitarist, vocalist, songwriter, and producer.

PAPA DON McMINN

BLACK GUITAR

LAST NIGHT BABY & THE NIGHT BEFORE

Papa Don helped revive historic Beale Street in Memphis, fronting the house band at the Rum Boogie Café. As one fan said, "If he wasn't white he'd be black."

THE PITIFULS

THEY SAY

SMOKE FILLED ROOM

One-off 1995 reunion of members of the famed Malaco Session band, augmented by friends from Eddie Rabbitt's band. Too bad it was just a one-off.

THE ANDERSON BROTHERS

TEN WHEEL DOG

Featuring Stefan Anderson

MAN IN LOVE

Featuring Joe Anderson

Soulful Louisiana brothers, Stefan and Joe Anderson were gifted singer-songwriters. Stefan tastefully handled the B-3 player, matched by Joe's born-to-it talent on guitar.

Southern Roots Rockers Volume One is the first release in LocoBop's series of southern fried music performed by some of the most authentic interpreters of the genre. The DNA of Southern Roots Rock is composed of rich Delta soil, Beale Street blues, Texas boogie, steamy Gulf Coast gumbo, packed Cajun dance halls, New Orleans reels, and honest-to-God rock & roll.

Go to tracks: Papa Don McMinn's BLACK GUITAR; Terry Wall's SLEEP WALKIN', and Don Nix's ADDICTED TO YOU.
